From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Mon, 11/2/2015 9:30:56 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Resurgent Erdogan sweepsto victory, Extra welfare p...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Monday November 02 2015

UK HOMEPAGE

Resurgent Erdogan sweeps to victory

Parliamentary majority vindicates president's strategy in calling early polls

Extra welfare powers planned for Scotland

Scottish secretary claims measures fulfil pledge made to Scots

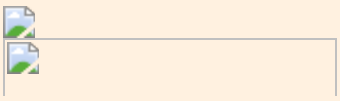
Beijing aids ECB with German bond sell-off

Move by Chinese central bank helps €1.1tn easing programme

VIDEO

Bank of Japan — trick or treat?

The Bank of Japan has announced that it will maintain its Y80tn bond buying programme. But has its stimulus made a difference to the economy since it shocked markets last year? Lex's Rob Armstrong and Giles Wilkes discuss.



US HOMEPAGE

US faces fresh Russian navy challenge

Increased activity from Black Sea and Mediterranean to Pacific

Wealthy Republican donors look to Rubio

Some big party backers are waiting for White House race to shake out

Weak China data weigh on Asia bourses

PBoC strengthens renminbi's daily fix by biggest amount in a single day since 2005

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Search widened in Metrojet crash probe

Officials reject claims that militants shot down Russian passenger plane

Greek banks finalise plans to raise €14bn

Lenders' needs are reportedly 'manageable' but observers warn that time is short

Streaming services dance to Adele's tune

Singer leaves executives in the dark over digital distribution plans for chart-topping '25'

ASIA HOMEPAGE

TV streaming services tap into SE Asia

Cut-price subscriptions and 'watch later' options tailored for fast-growing region

Australia U-turn on knights and dames

PM Turnbull reverses course on predecessor's much maligned policy to reinstate honours system

China falls in English proficiency ranks

Brazil and other emerging markets gain ground as schools devote less time to English

WORLD NEWS

France calls for rise in emissions cost

Carbon dioxide price should be 10 times higher in EU, says French environment minister

Erdogan's election gamble pays off

Turkey's president has to pick up pieces of a divided country

Deal to push for revival of N Korea talks

Move comes amid signs that Pyongyang's weapons drive is gaining dangerous momentum

Scottish Labour rejects Trident renewal

Boost to unilateral disarmament wing in UK party, including leader Jeremy Corbyn

Maranhão shines amid gloom in Brazil

A political effort to revive the poor state has lessons for the country

COMPANIES NEWS

M&A volumes weaken despite megadeals

Lack of smaller mergers raises concerns 2015 deal frenzy fizzling out

Foreign banks' US repo deals queried

Study suggests some lenders engage in seasonal pattern of asset shifting

BAE buys 20% stake in space engine group

Reaction Engines's Sabre design could power hypersonic spaceplane

Silicon Valley history hinges on HP split

Carving out PCs and printers is the latest attempt at rehabilitation

Airbnb faces crunch vote in San Francisco

City residents to decide whether short-term home rentals should be limited to 75 days

MARKETS

Markets diary

Investors will be digesting Turkish election results, US jobs data and speeches from Fed speakers

Economic outlook

Investors wait for BoE rate decision, meeting minutes and last inflation report of year

COMMENT

Obama's mission creep in Syria

It is time for Obama to come up with a plan of his own

Two big mistakes that ruined Europe

The single currency is a trap and eastern expansion forced the EU to take its eye off the ball

The sorrows of China's one-child policy

Personal family choices must still yield to national interests, writes Haining Liu

Serious times for Guatemala's president

Voters know they can topple unwanted leaders through protest, writes Daniel Lansberg-Rodriguez

When technology turns business upside down

The data revolution raises uncomfortable questions for directors, writes Ian Cheshire

MANAGEMENT

Jean Todt: motorsport's quick thinker

The head of the governing body on triumph at Ferrari, Ecclestone and Schumacher

Barclays boss must ditch focus on value

Jes Staley's email to underlings starts well but fails on its use of the 'v-word'

Strategies for staff facing a merger

First, stop relying on your boss for reassurance, then make sure you are well-positioned

Feedback: When staff turn on you

Michael Skapinker addressed in his column last week how managers should react when they lose support

Manage email

Forward this email

Feedback

Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2015

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.